"At first the pages of this book
Were blank and purely fair,
But time hath written memories
And painted pictures there."

This annual, the 1952 GREENBRIAR, is brought to you in the hope that through the years it will serve as a constant reminder of our wonderful days at Fuquay Springs High School.

"Memory is elusive — in this book we have tried to capture it for you."

We would like to express our appreciation to everyone who has helped to make our yearbook possible.

OUR HISTORY

Who would possibly guess that the high and mighty Seniors of '52 could have been a group of confused, green freshmen only four short years ago? It took us a while to get used to the routine of high school, but when we finally did, we really felt a part of the school. David Smith, Bobby Coats, and Lewis and Lawrence Lane were on the football team, which, incidentally, won the county championship for the second consecutive year. On the basketball court Shirley Holland, Portia Mitchell, and Jerry Williams wore the green and white.

We really got into the swing of things as steadily rising Sophomores. Violet Howard, Tommy Howard, and Portia Mitchell represented our class in the Student Council. Wallace Sherron and Charles Wilson this year earned berths on the football squad. Class officers were Tommy Howard, Rachel Dickens, David Smith, and Betty Jo Beck. The tour of Washington, D. C., proved most interesting both educationally and socially!

After a brief summer vacation, we trudged back to the little red schoolhouse, but with lighter hearts, for we were now Juniors! Willie Lee Crabtree served as our very capable President this year. Ten "brains" sported Beta Club pins, with Betsy Johnson and James Fish Vice-President and Treasurer, respectively. The theme for the Junior-Senior Banquet was a "Dream." We were all proud of our "finished product" and felt it was worth all the trials and tribulations undergone. Rachel Dickens proved her acting ability when she played the leading role in the Junior play, "Our Miss Brooks." Other characters were portrayed by Gaither Snipes, Betty Jo Beck, and Lewis and Lawrence Lane. The football team, consisting largely of Juniors, won the championship for the fourth straight season, and were we proud of them! Charles Wilson and Jerry Williams played important parts in winning the county championship in basketball.

Seniors! We had finally risen from the ranks to the number one spot! At the beginning of the year, we implied to the teachers that we knew everything and that there was no use to try to teach us anything else, but were they discouraged? No! Even with knowing everything, we found that we had to "brush up" on our lessons before class. It was a big day for us when our beloved rings arrived. And, too, we felt important when we selected our invitations and calling cards. David Smith proved to be one of the big guns on the gridiron, as was Wallace Sherron, who was chosen for the All-Eastern team. Our team, which started out slowly, came back to win the county championship for the fifth consecutive year. Betty Jo Beck was their attractive sponsor at the homecoming game with Cary. Rachel Dickens and Willa Jean Akins won guard positions on the basketball team. Bobby Coats presided over the Senior meetings, while James Fish took charge in chapel every Friday as President of the Student Council.

Even though our four years at Fuquay High were short, we have made every minute one to remember. The friendships which could never have come about if we had not come to this school will be lasting ones in mind and in real life. We are indeed grateful for all the exciting annual events which could only be acquired at our own Fuquay Springs High School, and may those afm several as happy times as we have had.

CLASS PROPHECY

May 16, 1962

My, what a change ten years can bring! You would really be surprised to hear wnat has happened to the seniors of '52.

The other day when I was visiting in my old home town of Fuquay Springs, I dropped in at school. Imagine my surprise when I found Jane Riley teaching reading, writing, and arithmetic to those dear little sixth graders, and Malisia Barbour teaching home economics! While I was there, Coach Lawrence Lane dropped by to say hello and tell me about his State Champion football team. The most interesting part of my visit at school, however, was sitting in on Mrs. Stack's Sociology Class. Yes, everything is about the same. She's still calling on those involuntary volunteers!

I paid a visit, too, that day to Lewis Lane's Circle L Ranch. Imagine (or can you?) a huge cattle ranch right here in dear old Fuquay. And who do you suppose this big tycoon has hired as secretaries? Why, Betty Joe Beck and Frances Parrish. And to top it all off, he has Tommy Howard and Charles Scholl roping steers!

When I picked up the local newspaper, now published by Billy Ragsdale, I was very pleased to read in the headlines that Deams Averette had just won first prize in a National Art Exhibit. You know he has just returned from Paris where he has been studying for the last two years. And guess whose picture stared at me from the front page? None other than Miss Frances Poe, who has just accepted a position with Saks on Fifth Avenue in New York, modeling (you guessed it) bathing suits!

While reading the paper, I ran across numerous items concerning our fellow seniors. There was a lengthy account of Wallace Sherron's outstanding performance in his last professional football game; an item concerning State Prison Warden Jimmy Lineberger's vacation which begins next Monday; and also a notice that Doctor Rachel King and assistant Ellen Howard are going to open a small clinic in Fuquay soon.

One night I attended a large square dance and was surprised to find the music furnished by none other than Willie Lee Crabtree and his Fuquay Fiddlers. Over in the corner I recognized a group of old pals and hurried over to speak to them. Ben Burchette, Judson Jones, Waylon Smith and Charles Wilson were engaged in a heated argument concerning who could grow the tallest corn.

Almost every time I visit Fuquay, I meet Maurice Adcock, several times a day, riding in his '62 Bel Air Chevrolet from farm to farm. There seems to be quite a bit of controversy between Maurice and David Smith as to who really owns the most land. It seems David owns about half of Willow Springs and Maurice a good share in Varina.

The only local business firm owned and operated by a '52 senior is the "Rest in Peace" Mortuary Parlor owned by Jack Browder. He encouraged me to direct any possible business his way. I had time for only a brief visit with Mary Joyce Jones, Jane Bridges, Violet Howard, and Rachel Dickens, those lucky young ladies for whom the golden bells of matrimony have already tolled.

These were the only seniors I saw on my visit, but I did hear from several others. James Fish has turned out to be a second Fred Astaire and is now starring in a new Broadway musical. Portia Mitchell is a laboratory technician at Duke University; and Jerry Williams, Junior Bowling, and Erwin Cates are still working for Uncle Sam.

Would you ever have guessed in 1952 that so much could happen in just ten years?

WHAT DID WE DO IN '52?

It all began in '51 on a bright Wednesday morning in September. Beneath our groans of regret at the reopening of school there was a tinge of excitement and enthusiasm mingled with just the tiniest bit of curiosity; for few of us had even seen Mr. Farnell, our new principal. We realized in chapel that morning that there would be some changes made, when we found that in our home rooms the boys and girls were mixed. Of course, we offered no objections to this change; and as we became accustomed to those which followed, we realized they all worked out for the best.

Immediately we began to think even more of our new principal when he bought a new Public Address System and arranged for us to have music while we ate.

Although our football team got off to a rather slow start this year, before the season was half over, it was again a terrific powerhouse. Led by Co-Captains David Smith, Wallace Sherron and Charles Wilson, the team proved a true credit to Fuquay High School. For the fifth straight year they brought home a new trophy — Wake County Champions!

The new Beta members and the F. F. A. and F. H. A. members are not likely to forget the outlandish stunts they performed or the horrible punishments they were subjected to on initiation night. Remember how Eleanor Clark sat on the street corner under her umbrella and counted to 2,000? And how Tommy Howard was forced to crawl the length of a block and back? My, what fun we had!

Fuquay High received a real Christmas present this year — a new gym floor. This gift was especially appreciated by Portia Mitchell, Shirley Holland, Jerry Williams, and the rest of our basketball stars. They had to play a pretty good game to outshine our new floor!

Another highlight of the year was our election, planned and carried out by the Student Council exactly like real town elections. We filed for office, campaigned, and voted by secret ballot in real booths.

Closely following the week of elections came the Junior Play entitled "Our Town" — directed by Miss Vivian Burton. The play, which was written by Thorton Wilder, requires no scenery and therefore requires excellent acting. Given just that, the play proved both novel and very entertaining.

Everyone was very disappointed when our physical education teacher and assistant coach, Mr. Joe Weede, left us at midterm; but we all welcomed Mr. Howell, his successor.

Fads this year were numerous. We wore turtle neck sweaters, suede loafers, windbreakers, and anything which proclaimed our undaunted loyalty to the Confederacy! The thing that most definitely distinguished us as teenagers, however, was the fact that we had a language all our own. Thanks to the coaching of Ben Bennett and Willa Jean Akins, practically the whole school was talking pig-latin. When Maurice Adcock and Barbara Thomas added "evurbody", "shug", and "I spec" to our vocabulary, nobody but nobody could keep up with our conversations.

The students at Fuquay might have fallen out with the local newspapers this year if their mistakes had not proved so amusing. Remember how the Fuquay Senior Officers were pictured as the Wakelon Class Officers? And who has forgotten the basketball write-up in which Barbara Thomas was best on defense?

Mixed with our laughs there were, of course, a few sorrows. For instance, the time when Charles Wilson broke his collar bone and was able to play in only a few football games during the season, or the basketball game our girls lost to Lafayette by one point which they scored on a free shot after the game was over.

All things considered, however, it has been a good year, a happy year, and one not to be easily forgotten.

The staff that aged over night!

THE GREENBRIAR STAFF

Of course there were times when we wished we had never heard of an annual, but it has really been fun. Those nights when we all worked together, taking turns at the typewriter, drawing ads and doing all the many other things connected with putting a yearbook together, will go down in our memories along with all the happy events of the year.

I know our advertising staff will not soon forget those many days they trudged from business firm to business firm, rain or shine, always trying to impress upon everyone the value of ads in the GREENBRIAR.

And what members of the editorial staff can't remember the nights they sat for hours gazing at a blank sheet of paper while their minds went on world tours — Ideas just wouldn't come!

Finally it was finished, however; and in a way, we missed it. But now it's back and this time to stay, constantly reminding us of a wonderful year at Fuquay.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, under the leadership of Mrs. Elizabeth Stack, has had a very successful year.

Their greatest undertaking was the planning and carrying out of our weekly chapel programs. It was the plan of the Student Council to have speakers from as many varied professions and businesses as possible in hopes that their talks might help some of the students decide for what work they were best suited.

Another important project which was carried out by the Student Council with the aid of one of Mrs. Stack's history classes was the fall election. Together they studied and worked out a system for the election of grade and organization officers. Students were required to file for office, register, and vote by secret ballot in regular voting booths which were borrowed from the town. This project was enjoyable to the student body as well as educational.

Still another project which the Student Council undertook with the aid of the Monogram Club was the Homecoming Dance held in the gym following the Cary ball game. Along with winning the game, which gave Fuquay the County Championship, the evening proved most enjoyable.

During the five years since the Student Council was organized it has been constantly improving, and this year has been its best!

BETA CLUB

The Beta Club is a National Honorary Organization composed only of Juniors and Seniors who are selected on the basis of leadership, character, achievement, and scholarship.

This year our Beta Club began its activities by initiating the new members. Dressed in outlandish costumes, the victims were sent uptown to perform unheard-of feats, anything from counting bricks in a building to drawing footprints around a block or two.

At the following meeting our new officers were installed in a very impressive Rainbow Installation Service.

Everyone has enjoyed the use of the gift left by last year's Beta Members — the large hall clocks.

This year the Beta Club sold drinks at basketball games to build up the treasury.

Several of our members attended the Beta Club Convention which was held this year at the Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh.

The Future Homemakers have been very busy this year.

Closely following the opening of school in September, the new members were initiated. These unfortunate little freshmen were blindfolded and subjected to showers of water and flour.

Quite a few of the F. H. A. members attended the County Rally at Cary and the District and State Rallies, both held in Raleigh. At the State Rally special honors were presented to Violet Howard and Frances Poe. Both girls received the State Homemaker's Degree.

The Future Farmers took as one of their projects landscaping local homes and planting shrubbery.

As a joint project the two clubs placed a fireplace and picnic table in the new picnic area. Still working together, in December the clubs held their annual Mother-Daughter, Father-Son Banquet in the school cafeteria with Mr. Robert Cotten as speaker of the evening.

During the summer of '51 a group of about thirty-five girls and boys journeyed to the Tom Brown Camp near Asheville, where they spent a delightful week swimming, hiking, and taking part in several types of sports. At the end of the week a tournament was held in each sport and Fuquay brought home a new banner for winning more of the contests than any other school.

And so end the events of another happy and successful year for the Future Homemakers and Future Farmers.

The Fuquay Falcons opened th[illegible] High School Capitols on September 7. The Falcons' almost completely inexperienc[illegible]rfities that night, and the game ended in Raleigh's favor — 32 to 0.

On the following Thursday night [illegible]lcons journeyed to Massey Hill, only to meet defeat again in a hard fought game ending with a score of 21 to 0.

On Friday afternoon, September 28, the Fuquay team met their first conference rivals of the season in a very exciting, but disappointing game. Several times the Falcons threatened, only to be pushed back by a strong Garner eleven. During the game, the Fuquay team gained 20 first downs, losing chances for four touchdowns because of fumbles. The game ended with Garner out in front by a score of 12 to 0.

Then came the Methodist Orphanage game played in Raleigh, and a new defeat for the Falcons — 37 to 0. The whole team seemed to have a bad case of fumbleitis. Still undaunted, however, by the fact that they had not yet scored, the Fuquay eleven resolved to put an end to this record!

Next came Wakelon, and Assistant Coach Joe Weede hit on a brilliant idea to put an end to the Falcons' scoreless record. Coach Weede carried along a bucket of Fuquay dirt so the Falcons could play on home ground. Sure enough the Fuquay team turned in a winning score of 39 to 6. Buck Adcock led the Falcons' attack by making the first touchdown, not only of that game, but of the year.

The following Friday night Fuquay played host to Erwin. This was the first home game and the large number of Fuquay fans who attended were not disappointed. David Smith scored once on a 40-yard pass and later Jerry Williams went over for another touchdown on the ground. Charles Garrison was outstanding line man. The game ended with a score of 25 to 6 in Fuquay's favor.

Wendell was next on the Fuquay schedule, and the Falcons handed in an easy 32-0 victory. Coach Council said this game was his team's top performance of the year.

Rain immediately reminds us of the Hillsboro game. Fighting rain and mud plus the Hillsboro eleven, Fuquay's winning streak was temporarily ended. The Falcons played a splendid game, however. Jerry Williams scored the one touchdown from the 7-yard line. Fuquay threatened a second time from the 4-yard line with 40 seconds left in the game, but were penalized. Final score — 13 to 7.

Next came the Selma game which proved the most exciting of the season for the fans. The score at the first quarter was 14 to 0, in Selma's favor. During the second quarter Tommy Howard scored on a quarterback sneak from the 2-yard line, and Glenn Powell took a 25-yard pass and scored again. During the second half the Falcons made a real comeback, the hard running of Glenn Powell setting up 2 more touchdowns and making the final score 26 to 14, in Fuquay's favor.

Cary was the game that counted, and no one knew this better than David Smith. It seemed that this Smith boy had a hand or a toe in on all points. The entire team played a very good game. The final score — 26 to 14, in Fuquay's favor.

And so ended another season with Fuquay bringing home the Wake County Championship Trophy for the fifth straight year. Coach Council was heard to say that this team improved more in one season than any other he had ever coached.

Outstanding line men for the Falcons this year were Wallace Sherron, David Smith, Charles Garrison, Bobby Coats, Lawrence Lane, Maynard Smith, and Ben Stephenson.

The outstanding backs were Jerry Williams, Tommy Howard, Buck Adcock, Charles Wilson, Lewis Lane, Glenn Powell.

We were very proud of Wallace Sherron, who was chosen on the All-Eastern Football Team.
